

Yoga Sutra Shala - Cancellation / postponement Policy

Our cancellation / postponement policy is:

If you are unable to come on the retreat or the teacher training course that you have booked, please notify us at least a month before you are due to arrive and we can either:

1. Refund your deposit payment minus a 50€ administration fee.

2. Allocate your deposit to another retreat or teacher training course date that you specify at the time of your cancellation.

If you cancel or postpone your retreat or teacher training course within a month of your arrival date, your deposit payment will be kept by us to cover administration and contribute towards the costs for filling your place.

An additional deposit payment will be due on any subsequent booking that you make.
